

PRACTICE TRAINING CONTRACTS

Introduction

If you are looking for an exciting legal career in the dynamic and fast paced area of intellectual property and information technology, and at the same time want a work-life balance and a friendly work environment, you have found the right place. Come and join our team as a Practice Trainee!

Training Programme

Our Firm's training programme for Practice Trainees will largely cover the civil litigation process and corporate practice, all pertaining to intellectual property and information technology. You will have valuable exposure to different areas of intellectual property including patents, trade marks, designs, copyright, integrated-circuits, ranging from protection, management, litigation, licensing and transactional work, and will also learn and develop skills such as client and file management.

Our Supervising Solicitors

As a Practice Trainee, you will work closely with and be mentored by a director in our Firm who is qualified to be a Supervising Solicitor under the Legal Profession (Practice Training Period) Rules. You can learn more about our Firm's Supervising Solicitors by clicking on the names below:

- Jo-Ann See
- Wilson Wong
- Jason Chan
- Winnie Tham
- Elaine Tan
- Gwendolene Lee

Benefits for Practice Trainees

As a Practice Trainee, you will receive an honorarium of SGD 2,000 per month during your Practice Training Period with our Firm, and SGD 500 per month during the duration of the Part B course.

Upon completion of your full Practice Training Period at our Firm, you will receive reimbursement for your Part B course fees, as well as the Board of Legal Education registration fees and filing and stamping fees for the papers filed in connection with your admission to the Singapore Bar, but this is provided that you will continue with us as a legal associate for at least six months if you have been offered a position with our Firm.

You will have access to your own computer terminal and research databases at our Firm. If your birthday falls within the Practice Training Period, you will be granted a 1 day birthday leave.

We believe in building a collegiate and friendly culture and you will have many opportunities to interact with colleagues at our Firm's social gatherings and events such as our Christmas lunch.
